

DUŠAN MILOJKOV

Dušan Milojkov is a passionate cyclist who has ridden 17,966 km across Europe for different reasons and converted his experiences into fifteen travelogues. His books were reviewed by several Serbian celebrities. With his own lifestyle he promotes healthy and active lifestyle with sports and donates the money gathered from the sales of his published books to charitable causes. He is the author of four documentaries: „Cycling by the Danube through Serbia“, „Cycling through Italy“, „Cycling through South Banat without a Dime in My Pocket“ and „Cycling from France via Switzerland to Italy“. As a cycling traveler he has always attracted a lot of attention in the countries he visited. It has been a special honor for him to be welcomed as a guest in many Serbian embassies and clubs in European countries where they complimented him for showing „the new face of Serbia“ and for being a Serbian ambassador of sorts. His past projects were covered by the government owned media: RTS, Studio B, Večernje Novosti, Politika, Sportski Žurnal, Blic, as well as the local media: TV Pančevo, Pančevac Press and Kovin Ekspres.

Below is the list of Dušan's important past destinations, his published books and photographs of him with our famous athletes whom he encountered on these journeys.
